

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 22, 2005

Ms. Moira Parro
Assistant District Attorney
Dallas County
411 Elm Street, 5th Floor
Dallas, Texas 75202-3384

OR2005-03494

Dear Ms. Parro:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 222609.

The Dallas County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney") received a request for all documents pertaining to a named individual. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

We begin by addressing your representation that some of the submitted information relates to grand jury proceedings. This office has concluded that a grand jury is not a governmental body that is subject to the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code, so that records that are within the actual or constructive possession of a grand jury are not subject to disclosure under chapter 552. See Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B) (definition of governmental body does not include judiciary); Open Records Decision No. 513 at 3 (1988) (information held by grand jury, which is extension of judiciary for purposes of Act, is not itself subject to Act). When an individual or an entity acts at the direction of the grand jury as its agent, information prepared or collected by the agent is within the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decision No. 513 at 3. Information that is not so held or maintained is subject to the Act and may be withheld from disclosure only if a specific exception to disclosure is shown to be applicable. Id. In this instance, we are unable to determine whether the district attorney has custody of any of the submitted information as an agent of the grand jury. Thus, to the extent that the district attorney has custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, such information is in the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to disclosure under the Act. Id. at 4. To the extent that the district attorney does not have custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, we address your arguments against disclosure.

We next note that the submitted information include an arrest warrant and the supporting affidavit for the warrant. Article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides:

The arrest warrant, and any affidavit presented to the magistrate in support of the issuance of the warrant, is public information, and beginning immediately when the warrant is executed the magistrate's clerk shall make a copy of the warrant and the affidavit available for public inspection in the clerk's office during normal business hours. A person may request the clerk to provide copies of the warrant and affidavit on payment of the cost of providing the copies.

Crim. Proc. Code art. 15.26 (emphasis added). Thus, the arrest warrant and affidavit for arrest warrant that have been presented to a magistrate are made public and must be released under article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. As a general rule, the exceptions to disclosure found in the Act do not apply to information that is made public by other statutes. See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994), 525 at 3 (1989). The arrest warrant and affidavit at issue here were presented to and signed by a magistrate, therefore, they must be released to the requestor under article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The remainder of the submitted information is subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022 provides that the following categories of information are public information and not excepted from required disclosure under this chapter unless they are expressly confidential under other law:

- (1) a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, for, or by a governmental body, except as provided by Section 552.108[.]

Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(1). The submitted information constitutes a completed investigation made of, for, or by the district attorney. A completed investigation must be released under section 552.022(a)(1), unless the information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 or expressly confidential under other law. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under rule 192.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. The attorney work product is found in rule 192.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. The Texas Supreme Court held that “[t]he Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and Texas Rules of Evidence are ‘other law’ within the meaning of section 552.022.” In re City of Georgetown, 53 S.W.3d 328, 337 (Tex. 2001). The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, however, only apply to “actions of a civil nature.” TEX. R. CIV. P. 2. Accordingly, rule 192.5 does not apply to the criminal matter at issue here and no portion of the remaining information may be withheld on this basis. You also assert section 552.108 of the Government Code. Because information subject to section 552.022(a)(1) may be withheld as provided by section 552.108, we will address this assertion.

Section 552.108 provides in pertinent part:

- (a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:

- (4) it is information that:

- (A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

- (B) represents the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

- (b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:

- (3) the internal record or notation:

- (A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

- (B) represents the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(4), (b)(3). A governmental body that claims an exception to disclosure under section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why this exception is applicable to the information that the governmental body seeks to withhold. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977); Open Records Decision No. 434 at 2-3 (1986).

In Curry v. Walker, 873 S.W.2d 379 (Tex. 1994), the Texas Supreme Court held that a request for a district attorney's "entire litigation file" was "too broad" and, quoting National Union Fire Insurance Co. v. Valdez, 863 S.W.2d 458 (Tex. 1993, orig. proceeding), held that "the decision as to what to include in [the file] necessarily reveals the attorney's thought processes concerning the prosecution or defense of the case." Curry, 873 S.W.2d at 380. In this instance, the requestor seeks all of the district attorney's documents related to a named individual. We agree that this request encompasses the district attorney's entire case file for the referenced individual. You assert that the information and its organization reflects the mental impressions and legal reasoning of the attorneys representing the state. You also contend that the information was gathered by attorneys in preparation for trial, and therefore constitutes attorney work product. Based on your representations and our review of the remaining information, we agree that section 552.108(a)(4) is applicable in this instance.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). We believe such basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle, including a detailed description of the offense and the arrestee's social security number. See Houston Chronicle, 531 S.W.2d at 186-187; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information made public by Houston Chronicle). The district attorney must release basic front-page information even if this information does not literally appear on the front page of an offense or arrest report. Although section 552.108 authorizes you to withhold the remaining submitted information from disclosure, you may choose to release all or part of the information at issue that is not otherwise confidential by law. See Gov't Code § 552.007.

Although the arrestee's social security number is basic information, it must be withheld in some circumstances under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the 1990 amendments to the federal Social Security Act. See 42 U.S.C. § 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I). These amendments make confidential social security numbers and related records that are obtained or maintained by a state agency or political subdivision of the state pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990. See id. We have no basis for concluding that any of the social security numbers in the file are confidential under section 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I), and therefore excepted from public disclosure under section 552.101 on the basis of that federal provision. We caution, however, that section 552.352 of the Government Code imposes criminal penalties for the release of confidential information. Prior to releasing any social security number information, you should ensure that such information is not obtained or maintained by the district attorney pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990.

In summary, we conclude that: 1) to the extent that the district attorney has custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, such information is in the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to disclosure under the Act; 2) the arrest warrant and affidavit must be released under article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure; 3) the social security numbers may be confidential under federal law; and 4) with the exception of the basic offense and arrest information, which must be released, the district attorney may withhold the remaining submitted information based on section 552.108 of the Government Code. As we are able to make these determinations, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Tex. Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
